PROBLEM &amp; SOLUTION

The Dangers of Modern Time and Especially Modern Technology

Stress and lack of energy are common consequences of today's living conditions. Our current lifestyle lacks exercise, proper nutrition, sleep, and stress management. New technologies such as cell phones, WiFi, radio-satellite systems, electric cars and more create a massive increase in radiation exposure. Stresses such as financial worries, workplace issues, or a strained home life can lead to sleep disorders and burnout. Climate change and environmental pollution have multiple consequences including effects on our well being.

Did you know that the earth's magnetic field is steadily decreasing (magnetic field deficiency syndrome)? These invisible threats deprive the body of energy it needs for life-sustaining processes.

Mankind is facing very big challenges and CENTROPIX+ offers new and unique solutions to protect against the effects of these daily challenges. Advanced patented solutions are now available to restore quality of life and give the body back the life energy it needs to life fully.

One KLOUD+

Numerous Possibilities

With excellent design and refined engineering, the KLOUD+ is created for those who are looking for a product that can be used in any life situation. With the unique patented, foldable design, the KLOUD+ can be used in the office, anywhere at home, or even when traveling. The KLOUD+ is for those who want to experience the highest level of comfort around the clock.

Powerful Flexible Brilliant

One of the special features of the KLOUD+ device are the various folding options. This not only amplifies the patented signal, but also offers countless and very convenient application possibilities. The average maximum intensity (microtesla) of both applicators is approximately 100  $\mu$ T. This varies within the programs and can of course also be adjusted to individual needs. As you fold the device the average intensity increases. Thus, the strength of the signal can be almost doubled for effect.

SCIENCE

What Is Life Energy?

A feeling of well-being can only be achieved when your self-preservation processes are supplied with sufficient life energy.

Stress, poor nutrition, lack of exercise, as well as other physical and chemical environmental influences can overwhelm the mechanisms of self-preservation. The usual consequences include poor sleep, feelings of weakness, lack of energy, burnout, and discomfort.

For exactly this reason, the body needs called activation energies that can start the molecular processes in the body and support self-preservation.

The KLOUD+ technology can support these processes in the body using pulsating electromagnetic fields via PEMA technology and other complementary CENTROPIX+ products.

TESTIMONIALS

What Customers Say

In May of this year, I decided to revive my soccer skills, so I visited the team training session at my local sports club. While I was sprinting, however, I had a sense of unease, so my 2nd soccer career abruptly ended. Running or even walking unassisted was out of the question at first. Only through the immediate use of the KLOUD+ I could manage to walk normally. I then used it several times a day with different programs and there was a noticeable improvement. After just a week, I felt better again and was able to compete in a golf tournament the following weekend. I'm fortunate to have had the CENTROPIX+ KLOUD+, and I still use it every day.

Gerhard M.

I'm impressed with the effects of the KLOUD+ magnetic field therapy! My endurance and core stability have improved significantly even though I was very skeptical at the beginning. I recommend this device to everyone.

Nikolai F.

A good friend of our family came by our house. She felt a sense of unease in her hips and tried everything to get rid of it, unfortunately without success. We put her on the KLOUD+ mini for 15 minutes. The next day she called us - completely surprised and said that she felt great. She then came back to see us a few days later after the situation worsened again. We folded the KLOUD+ mini once and put it back under her at the hip. 15 min - All is well again!

K. S.

A friend of mine had a sense of unease in her knees for a long time. After three years of various therapies she had problems with her knee again - however, no findings were visible in the MRI. Another product remained without effect, but the KLOUD+ changed everything: after only one treatment with the KLOUD+ (P5, intensity 5) she felt no more discomfort for three days!

E. F.

I always had a discomfort in my legs. After I used the KLOUD+ for the first time, I could feel that something had changed; a positive change. After a week of using the KLOUD+, I played tennis again for the first time in weeks!

Werner W.

I have been affected for several years by a discomfort that makes it difficult for me to walk. I have been using another magnetic field system for years and have always had very good support with it. There was always a positive effect when using the magnetic field application. But for some time the effects stagnated. When I used the KLOUD+ for the first time I immediately noticed that I felt a great positive effect. After my walk in the forest in the morning, fatigue effects appear more often in the whole body. These disappeared immediately after using the 15-minute P5 program and I felt great. A »wow effect« for me. I have been using the KLOUD+ for several weeks now and have been able to experience these positive effects anew each time. I am thrilled.

SCIENCE

Study with Water Crystals

The water laboratory Hado Life of Dipl. Ing. MSc Rasmus Gaupp-Berghausen has been investigating water for its formative properties for many years.

Water ice crystal photography is the method developed by Dr. Emoto to examine frozen water samples at 200x magnification in a reflected light microscope.

Based on the findings of Dr. Emoto, the form-giving image forces of water are examined and illustrated by ice crystal images. Good and above all natural water is characterized by particularly beautiful and harmonious appearing forms.

Reverse osmosis water was first exposed to a WiFi router for ten minutes before each experiment (see right images).

Then it was placed on the KLOUD+ for 15 minutes at program 5 and highest intensity.

Then it was placed between the BUBBLE+ and the WiFi router for only 10 minutes.

It was also placed between the WiFi router and the COCOON+ with its three standard cards (e-smog, sleep well, hawaii harmony) for 10 minutes.

The results are truly fascinating!

THE TRILOGY

Complete Life Energy

The CENTROPIX products complement each other perfectly. They protect against the the invisible dangers of modern stressors and recharge missing life energy. The KLOUD supplies your body with life energy by means of molecular activation - energy that is needed to maintain life-sustaining processes. The COCOON Room Converter converts non-thermal e-smog into frequency codes which protect the body's self-preservation mechanisms. The BUBBLE which also converts non-thermal e-smog and provides valuable frequency codes, is probably the smallest pulsating electromagnetic field (PEMF), which can recharge your body around the clock. All of these functions are in just one small wearable pendant that you can enjoy wherever you go.
